After the original painting by H. B. WIMBUSH.

The Fairy Glen is among the most beautiful spots near Bettws-y-Coed. Here the river runs at the bottom of a deep gorge, the rocky sides of which are literally covered with trees and undergrowth, the former almost seeming to meet overhead. It is truly a quiet, peaceful scene, and the visitor who is fortunate enough to explore the place during an unfrequented hour will be sure to find plenty to repay him for his trouble.
